FROM THE RECTOR

Dear Friends

In these days of credit crunch and financial difficulties – made worse by the cost of Christmas! - we can be short on hope. But hope is at the heart of the Christmas message. Mary sang of how God fills the hungry with good things. The angel told how nothing is impossible with god. The shepherds returned to their fields glorifying and praising God. And Jesus is none other than Immanuel, which means "God with us". So may I warmly invite you to join us in our Christmas services, so that together we

Yours in Christ

POPPY APPEAL

The collections in Boxted and Langham for the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal amounted to a fantastic £2,437, of which £1,321 originated in Boxted and £1,116 in Langham.

Organisers John Watts (Boxted) and Ann Sutherland (Langham) thank all the helpers who gave their time and energy to the appeal and to all those who responded so generously.

ADVENT FRUGAL LUNCHES

This year's Advent Frugal Lunches began on 25 November and continue for a further three Tuesdays to 16 December. They follow the weekly Coffee Café (10.30 to 12 noon) at Boxted Village Hall and are in aid of Colchester Emergency Night Shelter.

LANGHAM PRIMARY SCHOOL

An Earlybirds Club has been started, at 8.30 on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, as part of the "CPOC" initiative. Classes 3 & 4 have visited Ardleigh School to listen and learn about the organisation of a brass band. A variety of tunes were played by the Abbeygate Church Band, whose Musical Director gave an interesting commentary in between pieces.

The whole school has been preparing for a Religious Education Event in the last week of November, embracing ethnic music and dance teaching by VIBA; Class 4 will be learning about Greek dancing from Mrs Bull.

Preparations are in full flow for Christmas activities, which include the Christmas Fayre on 5 December.

The foreign language being learnt by the whole school over the academic year is Spanish. The gardening club teacher has attended a "Food for Life" course to help encourage the youngsters to grow their own vegetables at school and at home. The school already has working composters, a quiet area herb garden and a pond.

BOXTED HISTORY GROUP

This autumn members have been entertained and enlightened by a number of interesting talks. Laura McLean spoke about artefacts found in recent years in the Boxted area, many of which she had brought to show members. Michael Cox gave an absorbing account of "Women at War", while Ray Spillar enlivened an evening with "Music of the Fifties"

This autumn members have enjoyed a number of interesting and informative talks. Laura McLean of the Colchester & Ipswich Museums spoke of artefacts, many of which she brought along, found in the Boxted area. Michael Cox spoke of "Women at War" and Ray Spillar activated memories with "Music of the Fifties". In January Richard Turner of the Boxted Airfield Historical Association will give an illustrated talk on the history of Boxted Airfield. Non-members are welcome at a charge of £2 each.

LAWFORD RECYCLING CENTRE

The recycling centre for household waste at Lawford has for some time been open daily from 8 am to 4 pm (5 pm, 1 March to 15 October). It will be closed from 1 pm on Xmas Eve and all day on Xmas and New Year's Day.

KELVEDON SINGERS AT ST PETER'S

The well-known Kelvedon Singers will be singing Evensong, including canticles, psalm, responses and perhaps an anthem, at St Peter's Church on 8 February. The Singers regularly tour the Lot region of France, singing High Mass in Cahors Cathedral. They also sing weekend services at Ely Cathedral when the resident choir is away.

BOXTED WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Members recently enjoyed lunch as guests of the President, time being spent on developing ideas for the 2009 programme. The AGM on 11 November saw Geraldine Russell re-elected President; Mary Mould was warmly thanked on her retirement after 10 years' work as Treasurer.

The Christmas Dinner will be at the "Rose & Crown", Dedham, on 2 December and the Xmas Party on the 9th in the Village Hall. At the January meeting Adrian Arnold will tell "How to write a book".

LANGHAM BABY/TODDLER GROUP

A baby/toddler group will return to Langham, at 9.45 am on Monday 5 January in the main hall of the Community Centre. Sessions will be from 9.45 to 11.15 am every Monday thereafter during school term. The charge will be £2 per family each week. Some generous donations of toys have been made but if there are readers who can offer more toys for toddlers aged 2+ they will be greatly appreciated. For more information, ring Claire Arculus on 271264.
